Hull — where the model leans on the built environment

Share of each LSOA's total local Feature importance (|local coefficient| summed over all 30 players) that comes from the 12 built-environment players: area, nightlife, retail, transit stops, roads, intersections, green space. Labels name the top areas and their leading built feature. Model attributions, not causal effects or planning targets.